Academic Support

There are a number of people you can turn to if you are struggling with your studies:

Personal tutor:

Falling behind with your work?

Speak to your personal tutor who may be able to help you get back on track.

Library Services:

You can find books and online resources in the library.

Personal Education Plan (PEP):

With your consent, every six months we can meet with you and your social worker. This is your chance to tell us your opinions about the college and what improvements you would like to see. You will also be given some educational targets by your Social Worker, which we will help you to achieve.
